INFORMATION

For Those Contemplating Settlement in Oklahoma.

LETTERS FROM LAND COMMISSIONER STOCKSLAGER.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The commissioner of the general land office has made public the following letters, as being of general interest to persons contemplating settlement in Oklahoma:

"DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, GENERAL LAND OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12, 1889.

"O. M. Wilson, Esq., Arkansas City, Kan.: 'Sir—Your letter of the 4th inst., addressed to the attorney general in reference to the Oklahoma lands which are to be opened to settlement under the act of congress of March 2, 1889, has been forwarded to him by this office for answer.

"In reply I have to state that the lands in question are to be disposed of to actual settlers under the homestead laws only. A party desiring to become an actual settler under the homestead laws may initiate his claim by entry at the district land office after properly examining and selecting the land described, in which case he is allowed six months from date of entry within which to establish his actual residence on the land, or if he so elects he may initiate his claim by actual settlement on the land, which must consist of some act or acts connecting himself with the particular tract claimed, said act or acts to be equivalent to an announcement of such intention, and from which the public generally may have notice of his claim.

"Thereafter he is allowed three months within which to make his claim of record by entry in the district land office.

"I inclose for your further information copies of circular of Jan. 1, 1889, and April 1, 1889. Respectfully,

"S. M. STOCKSLAGER, Commissioner."

"WASHINGTON, D. C., April 12, 1889.

"Hon. J. J. Inalls, United States Senator: 'DEAR SIR—I have had the honor to receive by reference from you and herewith return a letter addressed to you by Mr. G. T. Sommers, dated at Oklahoma Station, I. T., the 25th ultimo.

"In reply I have to state that the act of March 2, 1889, to which Mr. Sommers refers, provides, as he states, that no one shall be permitted to enter or acquire any right to any of the Oklahoma lands to be disposed of thereunder, who violates its provisions by entering upon and occupying the same prior to 12 o'clock noon, of April 22, 1889, the date fixed in the president's proclamation of March 23, 1889, for the said lands to become open to settlement. The statutes make no exception to this provision.

"I am inclined to think, however, that when a person was already within these lands at the date of the approval of the act by proper authority, his presence there should not be regarded as a violation of this provision of the act. The primary jurisdiction to act upon applications to enter rests with the district land offices, and Mr. Sommers may present his application for entry to them with proper proof of his allegations. Should they refuse to permit an entry, he may appeal from their action, which would bring his application and proofs before this office for its adjudication in the case.

In speaking of the great line of immigration now setting toward Oklahoma, Commissioner Stockslager said that from newspaper estimates and from information received through official and personal sources, he was of the opinion that fully 100,000 persons would enter Oklahoma within a month after the 23d of April. For these 100,000 persons, said the commissioner, there are only about 10,000 homesteads which may be entered under the president's proclamation. Therefore for each quarter section open to entry there will be at least five or six applicants. Never before in the history of the country has there been a parallel to it.

The inevitable result of this tremendous influx, the commissioner thinks, would be a great many contests and probably some personal conflicts. A further result would be the spreading of this immense surplus over the adjoining Indian lands, from which it would be difficult to dislodge them without much trouble, and possibly bloodshed. If the commission appointed to treat with the Cherokees for a season of the Cherokee outlet could complete their labors within the next few months so that the new tract might be open to settlement before congress again meets, this might, and probably would, relieve the pressure. Otherwise he feared matters would become complicated, and the equilibrium restored with difficulty.

However, the commissioner has no doubt that the precautions now being taken to preserve order in Oklahoma, and to keep the intruders from the adjoining lands, will be amply sufficient for the purpose. The newly appointed registers and receivers of the recently created land offices at Guthrie and Kingfisher stage stations, with their clerks and two special agents of the department, will meet at Arkansas City, Kan., on April 17, and together proceed to the post of duty. Every facility will be extended by the local officers to applicants in making their filings, and every effort made to dispatch the business of the office with expedition.

In order to save the time of the receiving officers, they will be supplied with rotary consecutive-numbering stamps, instead of making their endorsements with a pen. The order in which an application is received, as indicated by the number stamped upon it, will determine and settle its priority over applications bearing a higher number. A force of clerks in the general land office has been hard at work since the president's proclamation was issued preparing plat books, blank books, blanks and supplies of all kinds for the new offices, and everything is said to be in readiness.

Negroes Going to Oklahoma.

Fort Smith, Ark., April 15.—A party of about fifty colored men, with their families, have started from here to Oklahoma. They will cross the Cherokee country, and expect reach the neighborhood of Guthrie about the 22d, where they will form a settlement and invite others to join them.

THE DANMARK'S PASSENGERS.

It is Believed That They Are All Safe, as the Vessel's Boats Were All Gone.

NEW YORK, April 15.—No further news has been received about the wrecked steamship Danmark. It is now believed, however, that all of the passengers and crew must have been rescued, as the disaster took place in the immediate track of the ocean steamers, and there were no signs of wreckage in the shape of boats, etc., to indicate that there had been any loss of life.

The offices of Funch, Elye & Company, New York agents of the Thingvall line, were besieged all day by anxious friends of people on board the Danmark. They turned away with tear stained faces when they learned that neither the Britannic nor Aller had brought any information that would lead to any conjecture as to the fate of the passengers and crew of the abandoned ship.

A Good Sign.

LONDON, April 15.—It is believed that all on board the steamer Danmark, which was found abandoned at sea, were taken off safely. The captain of the City of Chester says that all the Danmark's boats were gone, and a cable hung from her bow as though she had been taken in tow by another vessel.

THE OLGA.

The Nipale Almost Worthless.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 15.—The German warship Olga, which was stranded during the recent hurricane at Samoa, has arrived here for the purpose of repairing her damages, which are slight. She brought from Apia the commander, two officers and thirty of the crew of the German warship Adler, which was wrecked in the same hurricane.

The Olga's hull is perfectly sound. A small hole was made in her stern, and she will require to have two of her plates riveted. She made no water during her voyage from Apia here.

The screw steamer Rockton, of 1,198 tons, will proceed from here to Samoa, where she will take on board the crews of the wrecked American warships. She will then convey them to San Francisco.

The steamer Lubeck, from Apia April 2, has arrived here. She reports that the Nipale is so badly injured that it is doubtful whether she will be able to return to the United States.

A large number of the bodies of the officers and men of the various ships who were drowned during the storm have been recovered and buried.

The officers of the wrecked German warship Elber were also on board the Lubeck. They will proceed to Germany on the steamer Hapsburg, which sails from here April 24.

One hundred men belonging to the German fleet, including three officers, remain at Apia to guard German interests.

The Olga reports that the Nipale lost her rudder and propeller, and that the Trenton is full of water.

The Alder lies in the same position on which the storm left her.

IMPORTANT PATENT DECISION.

DETROIT, Mich., April 15.—An important decision was rendered in the United States district court Friday by Judge Brown. Asa W. Straight, the inventor of a burner for a gasoline stove, upon which he had applied for a patent, brought suit for an injunction against Clayton & Lambert, who had improved Straight's burner, claiming that the device "patent applied for" on his burner protected him.

Judge Brown held that the device is no protection, and the court cannot grant an injunction, as it cannot assume that the patent will be granted by the commissioner. He further says that patents have no rights at common law, and the statute make the life of a patent at seventeen years. To grant such an injunction would be to give the patent more than its statutory life, for, if granted at all it might not be for months after the application was filed. The bill was therefore dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

AT WORK AGAIN.

The White Caps in Warrick and Dubois Counties, Indiana.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 15.—The White Caps have commenced fresh depredations in Warrick and Dubois counties. John Lansford, road supervisor in Madison township, received a notice from the White Caps that some of the hogs he had impounded were the property of poor people, unable to pay fines, and if not promptly released he would be visited Wednesday night and compelled to surrender them.

Thursday morning at 1 o'clock Lansford was awakened by twenty masked men, and in the fight which ensued a son of Lansford and five of the White Caps were wounded. The mob then withdrew.

Robbed Her Husband and Skipped.

CAIRO, Ill., April 15.—Mrs. John Truist, of Pulaski county, about ten miles above here, stole $1,500 from her husband a few days ago and eloped with a neighbor named Peterson, taking her daughter with her. They went to Arkansas, but were traced by the husband and captured at Monmouth Springs. Peterson was jailed there. The wife and daughter were brought back to this city Thursday night and made to surrender $1,300 of the stolen money, after which the outraged husband made them go. The husband went back home, and the wife and daughter went to Hoxie, Ark., to start a boarding house.

Arms and Legs Torn Off.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., April 15.—A horrible accident occurred at a saw mill about seven miles from this city Thursday afternoon. William Phelps, the head sawyer, while pulling logs into the mill by means of a whiplash run by steam power, became entangled in the rope and was wound around the shaft eight times. One leg and both arms were torn off, and his head horribly crushed. He leaves a young wife and three children.

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE REPORTED FROM THE STORM'S TRACK.

Many Buildings Unroofed and Otherwise Damaged, Steeples Destroyed, Fences Scattered and Freight Cars Blown From Railroad Tracks—A Number of Accidents to Human Life.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The sudden flurry of wind and rain which visited a portion of Manhattan island Friday night was felt in greater severity in Astoria, L. I., where it assumed the form of a genuine cyclone.

About 8 o'clock there was a great rush of air and a howling of the elements. Everything that was movable was at once lifted from the face of the earth and whirled at a fearful speed through space. Shutters were torn from the houses and fences from their foundations, wagons were overturned and roofs were swept off in a twinkling. One man was severely injured.

The greatest damage was done in the vicinity of Baxter avenue and Academy street. Alarming havoc was wrought on the premises of Charles Cossensreeve, a market gardener. Five hundred hot house sashes or covers were blown a distance of hundreds of feet, and were smashed into fragments. A barn was demolished, and a laborer, whose name cannot be ascertained, was struck by flying pieces of boards and glass. His arm was broken, and he was badly cut about the head. The dog kennel at the same time was picked up by the wind and carried over into a field fully a block away.

Two new buildings in course of erection, about a hundred feet distant from Mr. Cossensreeve's place were unroofed and their roofs were lodged in a field nearly a hundred yards.

The chimneys were blown off of nearly every house in that part of Astoria. Such a gale was never before known in that vicinity.

In Eastern Ohio.

STEEBENVILLE, O., April 15.—A heavy storm passed over the city Friday evening at 6 o'clock. It first hailed for about ten minutes and then the rain came down in bucketfuls. The hail storm was the heaviest ever known here, the ground being covered with hail stones, bushels of them being nearly as large as hen eggs. A number of skylights were broken, and pedestrians rapidly vacated the streets.

At Powhatan, O., twenty miles below here, the storm struck Hornbrook's three-story brick building, and the roof was blown off. It landed on Giffen, Bean & Company's drug store (a frame building), almost crushing it by its weight, and damaged the contents considerably. A Mr. Coleman, who was in the third story of the Hornbrook building, was blown out into the street and badly injured. The roof of the Ohio River railroad depot was blown off, and the building caught fire. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done. Many chimneys and windows were damaged. Ten thousand dollars will cover the entire loss.

In Western Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURGH, April 15.—A heavy thunder wind and hail storm visited portions of western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and Maryland Friday, doing considerable damage.

Cars Blown from the Track.

CINCINNATI, April 15.—A special to The Post from Lancaster, O., says: Fifteen box cars were blown from the Columbus and Muskingum Valley track, part of the Catholic church was blown down, and houses were unroofed.

At many other places in Ohio the storm swept a wide path of roofless houses, blown-down steeples, etc.

At Huntington, Ind., a barn was destroyed by lightning.

Other places suffered more. The wind was accompanied by torrents of rain and hail.

Lightning Burns Several Buildings.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 15.—The country along the Ohio, from this city for thirty miles, and westward through Belmont county, O., was visited at 6 o'clock Friday evening by a very heavy storm of rain, wind and hail, which did great damage to property at a number of places. Half a dozen houses and other buildings were struck by lightning, and two or three of them were burned.

Wreck at St. Clairsville.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, O., April 15.—A terrific wind storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, passed over this place Friday evening. Considerable damage was done, among which is the following: Mill of Lewis Murlough, which is a complete wreck. Other buildings were injured, and many panes of glass, especially in the court house, were broken by the hail.

Great Hail Storm at Bluffton.

BLUFFTON, Ind., April 15.—A terrific rain and hail storm visited this city and county Friday afternoon. The hail fell until the ground was completely covered, and the rain descended in torrents, and it is feared much damage was done further north.

At Beidler, Ohio.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., April 15.—A cyclone struck the mining town of Beidler Friday afternoon, and demolished six dwellings. William Lewis' 12-year-old daughter was caught in ruins and fatally injured. Others were badly hurt. Particulars are meager.

Furniture Factory Destroyed.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 15.—The storm of wind and rain did great damage here. Hodel new furniture factory walls were blown down and several small buildings demolished.

Invalid Burned to Death.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 15.—Mrs. Becky King, aged 40 years, an invalid, living near this city, was burned to death on her bed Friday afternoon. She was alone, and it is supposed that in lighting her pipe set her bed on fire.

She says that Hatch confessed to her his relations to Mrs. Scofield, and that he went to her house on the night of the tragedy to break off all relations for good.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY EVE., APRIL 15, 1889.

HON. ALPHONSO HART, who represented the district across the river a few years ago in Congress, has been appointed Solicitor of Internal Revenue. The salary is $4,500 a year. This is one of the best "plums" that Ohio has been given.

It is reported that Hon. W. P. Taulbee has closed a deal for a tract of land in Breathitt County to a syndicate at Washington by which he makes $25,000, and the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat thinks this is better than playing Congressman. Decidedly so, but there's not so much honor in it.

GRANT COUNTY is seriously considering the question of abolishing the Court of Claims and substituting a Board of Commissioners. Leading citizens favor the move. It is a question that will likely come up in this county at no distant day. The Covington Commonwealth says: "The substitution in Kenton County of a board of three commissioners for the Court of Claims has worked excellently. The finances of the county have improved under the administration of the board, and though the change was bitterly opposed at first, it would be difficult to-day to find an intelligent citizen of Kenton County who would be willing to go back to the old way."

The editor of the Mt. Olivet Tribune, recently visited Maysville. Referring to his trip he says: "The establishment of manufactures is being agitated, and although some seem to think progress slow in this direction, we think the day is not far distant when Maysville will be a thriving manufacturing city. She will have to encourage home manufactures in order to hold and increase her trade and retain her prestige. Her three banks have nearly two million dollars on deposit, which forcibly demonstrates that her people have plenty of surplus money."

The Tribune is correct when it says we will have to "encourage home manufactures" in order to increase our trade. If the people will just go to work with this end in view, Brother Zoller's prediction, that "the day is not far distant when Maysville will be a thriving manufacturing city" will come true. We have many factories now, but we must have more.

State Convention of Republicans.

Chairman W. J. Linn, by direction of the Republican State Central Committee has issued a call for a convention to be held at Louisville Wednesday, May 22, 1889, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of Treasurer of Kentucky, to be voted for at the ensuing August election. The basis of representation will be one vote to each county for each one hundred and fractional vote over fifty cast for General Harrison in November, 1888. This will give Mason and the neighboring counties delegates as follows:

Mason.....23 Robertson.....3
Brecken.....11 Fleming.....17
Lewis.....19 Nicholas.....9

No Republican has yet announced himself as a candidate for the position to be filled, and Captain Sharp is the only Democratic candidate.

A Sample Protectionist.

In commenting upon the World's exposure of John Wanamaker's "sweat-shops" in Berlin the San Francisco Chronicle says: "Mr. Wanamaker would be a donkey if he did not buy his cloaks in the cheapest market."

But why should Mr. Wanamaker deny the same privilege to the mass of his countrymen? Why, except for selfish reasons, should he raise a campaign fund of $100,000 to aid in compelling the people of the United States to buy their necessities in the dearest market? The Chronicle says that he defends a high tariff in order to enable him to "produce here with decently remunerated labor."

Just how decently Mr. Wanamaker remunerates his labor in this country was shown in the World of last Sunday. In one of the Philadelphia establishments which manufacture clothing for this professed Philanthropist "the force is entirely European," and few of the operatives receive an average of $4.50 a week. In another manufactory a middleman who had barely made expenses at 60 cents a pair for trousers was notified that no more than 40 cents would be paid in future. Wanamaker has the contract for supplying the uniforms for the employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and he pays only $2.70 for making an entire suit. The "white slaves" at Berlin can hardly be less decently remunerated than this.

And it is for this sort of "protection to American labor" that the people of this country pay a duty of from 64 to 67 per cent. on their clothing!—New York World.

The cry of the Republicans that there must be a high tariff in order to protect the workingmen of this country from the pauper labor of Europe is one of the most hypocritical ever made. The tariff may be intended to benefit the laborers of this country, but it is a miserable failure in that respect. Such fellows as Wanamaker are the ones who reap the benefit. They grow rich by paying the operatives in their factories such wages as are noted above.

Such riches as that of Wanamaker and others like him, ought to prove a curse to their possessor.

Stock, Field and Farm.

It is estimated that $1,000,000 worth of stallions were on exhibition at Lexington last court day.

The Danville Advocate says: "The frosts of last week damaged the fruit crop in this county considerably. One of the fruit growers in the county says out of three hundred peach blossoms that he examined he found only three that were not killed."

The famous Jones County calf suit, which is now on trial for the sixth time at Waterloo, Ia., has been in the courts since 1877. The value of the calves out of which the suit grew was $45. The costs thus far are $3,500, and $50,000 has been expended in lawyers' fees.—Bourbon News.

Cotton exports during March past aggregated 542,591 bales, valued at $26,089,021, against 323,390 bales, valued at $15,636,405 in March, 1888. For the seven months ending March 31, 1889, cotton exports aggregated in value $197,431,046, against $142,101,600 for the corresponding seven months of the preceding year.

Louisville has 2,300 members in the order of Oddfellows.

The Grand Lodge have under their charge 210 orphans.

Of Rebekah Degree lodges, I. O. O. F., there are fourteen in the State, of which two are in Louisville.

There are 147 subordinate lodges of Oddfellows in Kentucky. Of this number Louisville has fourteen.

There are 6,342 contributing members of I. O. O. F. in Kentucky. There were thirty-three deaths during 1888.

New York State outside of the city has 5,980 Oddfellows, and paid out in relief $12,580, and buried seventy-nine members in 1888.

The order of Oddfellows is growing rapidly in California. There are over 76,000 in the State and 5,500 in the city of San Francisco.

Maine has over 18,000 Oddfellows, who own property valued at $29,500, and paid out in relief to their members during 1888 $57,716, and lost by death during the year 163 members.

Kentucky in 1890.

[Owensboro Messenger.]

The census of 1890 will show a population of more than two millions, and a voting strength of 400,000 is pretty hard to control, especially if it breaks loose once. In the meantime more young men of promise are entering business than formerly when every local genius straightway became a lawyer and a potential candidate for every office in sight. The law is not attracting young men as of old. In fact, many of the most promising lawyers have deserted their briefs for business enterprises or are looking out for a good opening in that direction.

High License.

[Exchange.]

The high license bill now pending in the Missouri Legislature is receiving strong Democratic support. In addition to a uniform tax of $500 per year there is required in the various towns and cities a special license tax, which in St. Louis would amount to $1,500, making a total license tax there of $2,000. The present number of saloons in St. Louis is estimated at from 2,000 to 2,500, and it is supposed the new tax rate will reduce this number to 1,000 or 600, yielding the city from $1,200,000 to $2,000,000.

WRECKS ON THE C. AND O.

Two Last Saturday—Engineer Blount and Conductor Mead Among the Injured.

There were two wrecks on the Cincinnati Division of the C. and O. last Saturday, the first of any consequence since the opening of the road.

Freight No. 71, Kanawha Dispatch, west bound, jumped the track at Limeville, Greenup County, early that morning. Engine No. 65, while en route to the wreck, ran over a horse at King's Station and was derailed.

Engineer T. T. Blount, of Covington, was caught by the reverse lever. He was badly bruised about the legs, and one of his hands was crushed. He was also badly bruised and scalded in the region of the abdomen.

W. S. Mead, of Oneonta, N. Y., was the Conductor in charge of No. 71. His right elbow was dislocated. Mr. Mead is quite well known in this city, and his friends will regret to learn of his misfortune.

Robert Harris, colored, of Prince Edward, Va., construction hand, sustained a dislocated shoulder. He and Blount were removed to the Cincinnati Hospital. Hood, one of the firemen, received slight injuries.

One engine was badly smashed up. The track was cleared Saturday and all trains are on time again.

The C. & O. depot at Newport is about completed.

The officers of the Norfolk & Western Railway will confer with Ashland Board of Trade next Friday night and will probably make some suggestion as to their proposed and desires in regard to running the road through Ashland, and bridging the Ohio at that point.

A new style of palace car has been placed on the Lake Shore and New York Central railroads between Chicago and New York. The car is the most elegant in the world, being much finer than the Pullman. It is the longest in existence, being seventy-seven and one-half feet in length. The old conventional patterns have been ignored and an entirely new design evolved. It has accommodations for at least twenty persons, its interior being divided into ten inclosed compartments (boudoirs), each containing two berths, lavatory, closet and hot and cold running water.

"Social Fetters."

"Social Fetters, or Within a Shadow," is the title of a dramatic story from the pen of Major Henry T. Stanton. The book is now in press and will be issued in about ten days. The scene is laid at Baltimore, and the characters are all drawn from Southern life. "The Kents," "The Moneyless Man" and other works of Major Stanton have given him a wide reputation as an author, and assures a rapid sale for "Social Fetters." The price is placed at only 25 cents.

A Cow Commits Suicide.

Joe Mulhatton, or one of his converts, was at Paris Saturday and sent the following to the Cincinnati Enquirer: "Mr. C. A. Kenney, of near Kenney's Station, K. C. Railroad, Bourbon County, had a cow that lost her calf about six weeks ago, which so preyed upon her that she suicided Friday from grief by drowning herself in a pond. She was observed by Mr. Kenney to wade in the pond and hold her head under the water for a minute of two, during which time she gave vent to a series of deep moans. Finally she laid down and held her head under water until life was extinct."

Electric Lighting.

Stuart & Altenburg having resigned the agency for the Edison Electric Light Company, are now interested with the Central Thomson-Houston Company, of Cincinnati. With largely increased facilities in electric lighting, arc, direct, alternating incandescent, together with electric motive power as manufactured by the Thomson-Houston Electric Company, of Boston, Mass., they are prepared to offer their customers—and all others contemplating the introduction of electric light—superior advantages both in mechanical construction and financial results.

Mr. H. Wadsworth, long connected at Chicago with the Thomson-Houston Electric Light Company, has now associated himself with the management of this company at Cincinnati.

Masonic.

There are 222 Masonic lodges in Virginia, and during 1888 there were 171 deaths, and a membership of 9,087.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky was organized in 1799, and was the first Masonic grand body West of the Alleghenies.

The Masons of St. Paul are building a temple to cost $12,000. The corner stone was laid last week, with imposing ceremonies.

The 24th of this month the Masonic fraternity of New York State will give a grand jubilee in honor of their $500,000 temple, which is now free from debt.

Mr. U. S. GROSE, of Ilin, Ill., and Miss Jennie DeBell, of Flemingsburg, were married Saturday by Judge Coons, at Wood's boarding house, corner Third and Sutton Streets.

Miss Ida B. COLLIER, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sharp last week, is to be postmistress at Millersburg. The Louisville Times' Washington correspondent says the appointment has been ordered.

Mr. C. T. ANDERSON, of Washington, has bought Mr. Henry Jefferson's interest in the Mt. Olivet bus line. Mr. Anderson is a clever and accommodating young man and the people along the route will be glad to see him back in his former position.

Mrs. JOHANNA DARNALL, mother of Mr. C. W. Darnall of this city, died Saturday morning at her home in Elizaville, after an illness of about one week from pneumonia. She was seventy-four years of age. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock, at Elizaville.

The new postmaster at Dayton, Ky., is named Motz. There were forty applicants for the place. He had no petition or recommendations. When asked what backing have you, he replied: "I am a member of the Young Men's Blaine Club of Cincinnati." He got the position.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

ANOTHER Democratic candidate for Jailer comes to the front to-day in the person of R. H. Pollitt. His announcement appears in this issue. Mr. Pollitt is a quiet, industrious citizen, a clever gentleman, a life-long Democrat and will make an excellent official if he should be so fortunate as to be elected to the position he seeks.

AN exchange says: "The liberal use of printers' ink is always profitable, but the advertiser who inserts an advertisement to-day and then to-morrow waits at the front door to see customers rush in will very likely be disappointed. Continuous publicity in the best newspapers of any article of merit will achieve the desired result."

THE Enterprise, published at Dillon, Col., says: "Mr. R. C. Smith, of Maysville, Ky., father-in-law of J. A. Adams, manager of the Reynolds Cattle Company, has bought and taken charge of the Green Mountain ranch, and intends to make it his future home. This ranch is beautifully located, well improved, and with the addition of a little more water can be made to be one of the most pleasant and desirable homes anywhere in the Blue Valley. The altitude is comparatively low and vegetation of all kinds can be profitably grown."

A SPECIAL from Steubenville, O., says the temporary injunction to restrain the State of West Virginia from taxing ferry-boats plying from Ohio to the West Virginia shore, was recently decided by Judge Jackson at Wheeling, by making the injunction perpetual, and holding that the property was personal, and had been taxed in Ohio, and that West Virginia had no power in the matter, the boats operating under a United States license. This case has been in the courts since 1884, and the termination of it settles a very important question to ferry-men along the river.

Mr. Bentley Withdraws.

MAYSVILLE, KY., April 15, 1889. To the Democracy of Mason County: After a careful survey of the situation, I have concluded to withdraw as a candidate for nomination for the County Clerkship.

Preoccupancy of the field by other aspirants long prior to any thought of the candidacy on my part, has placed me from the beginning at a most discouraging disadvantage. With no more tempting prospect of success, I am quite unwilling to awaken, as the contest progresses, animosity and strife in the ranks of the Democracy.

To my friends who so readily accorded their support and so warmly advocated my claims, I desire to acknowledge profound gratitude. Very respectfully, J. B. BENTLEY.

Personal.

Mr. W. P. LaRue, of St. Louis, is in town on legal business.

THE MEMBERS OF THE RIGHT IGNORE THE COURT'S REQUEST

To Appear in Evening Dress—The Decision in Mr. O'Brien's Case Regarded as a Severe Blow to the Government's Irish Policy—England Wants to Make Stanley a British Subject—Foreign.

PARIS, April 15.—When the senate met Friday the president read the decree constituting that body a tribunal for the trial of Gen. Boulanger, Count Dillon and M. Rochefort. The procureur general, Quesnay de Beaupre, then read a statement, setting forth the grounds upon which the prosecution of the accused is based. When the reading was concluded the senate went into secret session, and the public withdrew. The trial of Gen. Boulanger and his associates was then formally begun.

The senators had been requested to appear in evening dress for the occasion. This request was ignored by members of the Right, all of whom wore frock coats. The members of the Left were attired in evening dress, and wore white cravats.

The following commission has been appointed to conduct the trial of Gen. Boulanger and the other accused persons: Senators Merlin, Casot, Cordelet, Trarieux, Mure, De Marcere, Demole, L'Avergon, Morellet and Humbert.

Assistant commissioners have also been appointed, who will replace their colleagues on the regular commission if necessary. The assistant commissioners are: Senators Garigan, Dussolier, Develle, De Roziere and Testelin.

Senator Delbreil will not attend the trial. He holds that a political body like the senate has no right to try a delegate of the people. He declares that the trial is a revolutionary measure, and a defiance of universal suffrage.

Senator Leon Renault will also abstain from participation in the trial.

A motion from the Right, declaring that there was no ground for a judicial inquiry into the conduct of Boulanger, was rejected by a vote of 209 to 56. The senate then resolved by a vote of 210 to 55, to proceed immediately with his trial. Thereupon the doors were reopened and the public session was resumed. M. Leroyer read the decree authorizing the senate to sit as a court and directing that the trial proceed.

Several members of the right refused to accept a seat on the senate committee. Marshal Canrobert, in an excited speech, said he would never be a party to the prosecution on such frivolous grounds of a general who had well served his country. The sitting was a stormy one. The spectators were apathetic.

William O'Brien's Case.

LONDON, April 15.—The decision in the case of the appeal of Mr. William O'Brien is regarded by both Nationalists and Liberals, as well as many Tories, as a severe blow to the government's Irish policy. Mr. O'Brien was sentenced to four months' imprisonment at Carrick-on-Suir and to six months at Tralee, the sentence to run consecutively. On March 26 Mr. O'Brien was arraigned before Judge Curran at Kildare for the hearing of his appeal from his Tralee sentence of six months.

The case had not proceeded far when Judge Curran suddenly interposed to suggest a settlement of the dispute between the Kenmare tenants and their landlords, out of which the prosecution originally arose. The Kenmare estate was, during the difficulty and to this day, a scene of desolation. As a patriotic Irishman Judge Curran could not bear to look idly upon the devastation wrought by misunderstanding and useless bickerings, and asked whether it was not possible to refer the differences to arbitration. Mr. Hooley at once said that the tenants had already offered to submit the matter to the arbitration of two English members of parliament, one to be chosen by the landlord and the other by the tenants, to act with J. G. McCarthy, the land commissioner, who originally fixed the rents on the estate, as umpire. Mr. Hooley offered to accept Judge Curran himself as umpire, and the judge declared his willingness to act.

The agent of the estate asked to be allowed to refer the matter to the trustees and Judge Curran adjourned the case to April 10 to enable him to do so. The arbitration was agreed upon and Mr. O'Brien's Tralee sentence of six months was revoked. This suggestion of compromise was Judge Curran's own idea, and did not come from Mr. O'Brien, who, however, was very willing to further any plan which held out a prospect of a fair settlement.

The whole story is a striking comment on the claims of Mr. Balfour to have broken down the plan of campaign and all other forms of self-protection devised by the tenants. The result of his efforts is derelict farms and widespread desolation. It is also a comment upon the precious land act of 1887, which ought to have interposed some efficient and impartial arbitrating authority between landlord and tenant, but which has wholly failed to do so.

A capable and public spirited Irish judge sees no choice but to interfere and suggest the arbitration which ought to have been provided by parliament in some form. It has not passed unnoticed that the spokesman of the tenants at once accepted the suggestion, while the agent hesitated.

Samoa Conference.

BERLIN, April 15.—The Cologne Gazette advises President Harrison to reconsider the nomination of Mr. Bates to be a commissioner to the Samoa conference. In the course of a long editorial it says: "In Europe it is not the custom for a political agent, previous to his departure on a mission, to announce to the world in a newspaper, as Mr. Bates did, his views on disputed questions with which he is about to deal in a diplomatic capacity. The Americans, however, have a way of their own in diplomatic matters, and the Old World will have to get accustomed to the ways of the new world."

Notable Honors to Be Offered Stanley. LONDON, April 15.—It is asserted that upon the return of Henry M. Stanley to England he will be naturalized as a British subject, forsaking his American adoption, and that the government will confer upon him higher honors than have ever before been conferred upon a journalist or an explorer, which two professions Stanley combines. It is also stated that the Belgian government will join in decorating and otherwise honoring Stanley.

The Regency of Luxembourg.

LUXEMBURG, April 15.—The ex-Duke of Nassau has received a number of telegrams congratulating him upon his assumption of the regency of Luxembourg. Emperor William, of Germany, after expressing warm congratulations, deprecates the illness of the king of the Netherlands, and expresses the hope that his majesty will in time be able to resume his duties as a sovereign. The emperor gives expression to the most friendly and neighborly feelings towards the grand duchy, and says he is convinced that the regency will maintain cordial relations with Germany.

Foreign Notes.

The reichstag adjourned until the 7th of May.

The marriage of Prince Leopold to Princess Sophie is fixed for June 3d.

Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister to the United States, sailed Friday for New York.

The German New Guinea company will transfer the administration of its affairs to the imperial government.

Mr. Parnell will accept the tender of the freedom of the city of Edinburgh after he has given his evidence before the commission.

The style of German court dress is to be changed at once to a costume similar to that worn during the reign of Frederick I, and some time thereafter.

James L. Carew, member of parliament, for North Kildare, is very ill at Belfast jail, where he is serving a term of four months' imprisonment under the crimes act.

The Berlin Volks Zeitung has been indicted for lese majeste in attacking the memory of Emperor William. The charge is based upon the article which was the cause of the suspension of that paper.

Mr. David Sheehy, member of parliament for South Galway, who is serving a term of five months' imprisonment for offenses under the crimes act, has been confined to his cell on a diet of bread and water for refusing to perform menial work.

A service was held in the royal chapel, London, in memory of the late Duchess of Cambridge. The Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Teck, all the cabinet ministers, and many members of the diplomatic corps, were present.

The North German Gazette says: "The extension of the mail service between Cologne and Verviers, which includes the sorting of the American mails, is connected with the withdrawal of the government from the arrangement that has existed with the North German Lloyd Steamship company for the conveyance of the mails. It is the intention of the government in future to send a portion of the mails by the 'ocean grayhounds' of the Hamburg-American Steamship company."

DUN'S REPORT.

Business Prospects Better Now Than One Week Ago.

NEW YORK, April 15.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: In spite of continued dullness in many quarters and some disturbing failures, there are distinct signs of improvement in business. Reports from interior points, almost without exception, indicate an enlargement of trade, though it is but slow at some, and where the iron trade is important, increase in volume is neutralized by unsatisfactory prices obtained. Rapid advances in sugar, coffee, cotton, butter and oats are nearly balanced by the decline in wheat and corn, pork products, print cloths, leather and other articles, so that general average of prices is but a shade higher than a week ago. But further disbursements by the treasury have increased the already abundant supply of money; the market for securities has improved, and exports continue to increase.

The most significant feature of the week's commercial news is the report of furnaces in blast April 1, which shows a weekly output of anthracite and bituminous iron only 657 tons less than March 1, and nearly 37,000 tons or 36 per cent. larger than a year ago. Restriction in some localities appears to be nearly balanced by increase in the output elsewhere, and the significant fact is that, with a production close to the largest ever known, prices scarcely yield at all, and no depressing accumulation of stock is visible.

The market for cotton goods is moderate, and print cloths are an eighth lower, but exports continue to exceed last year's more than receipts, and raw cotton has risen a quarter. The official return shows exports of 244,000,000 pounds in March against 156,000,000 last year, the increase in value being over $10,000,000.

In oil the increase in quantity exported was small, and lower prices caused a decrease of $200,000 in value for March, and the market has been dull and weak.

Woolen manufacturers and dealers are excited by the news that the recently appointed appraiser at Philadelphia has advanced the duty on worsteds to correspond with that on wools, and some believe that a similar ruling will soon be made here and at other ports. The importation of worsteds in great quantities, at low rates of duty, has changed operations in many woolen mills, and the manufacturers are gratified by the new ruling while the importers will resist it in the courts. The market for raw wool is stronger in tone, and an advance in price is expected.

Without exception, reports from the interior show that money is abundant, though in a few instances the demand is improving. Fear of disturbance in connection with April settlements having passed, the supply would doubtless have been ample, even if the treasury had not taken occasion to accept bonds offered at higher rates than before, and thus to check the accumulation of money. The disbursements for the week have exceeded the receipts by $3,500,000. No demand from abroad appears as yet, though foreign exchange has been strong in spite of some purchases of securities on European account.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number for the United States 212, and for Canada 27, or a total of 239, as against a total of 223 last week, and 240 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 223, made up of 200 failures in the United States, and 23 in Canada.

Kilrain Does His Part.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Jack Kilrain has deposited with The Clipper $1,500, his final deposit in the match with Sullivan, making the total $10,000.
